EXAMPLE WEEKLY SCHEDULES

SHIFT WORK SCHEDULE - This example is for a second shift breadwinner and an at-home homeschooling parent. Your schedule may be different, but you can apply the same principle.

MON	TUE	WED	THU	FRI
Morning — Brunch and play; family time while the employed parent is home Early afternoon — Homeschooling Mid-afternoon — Neighborhood play or break Early evening — Dinner Evening — More homeschooling

WHAT WE NEED AND WANT TO DO SCHEDULE - On your schedule you may still have a daily routine around meals, walks, read-alouds, or whatever else you do daily, but your weekly and daily schedules flow around your needs and wants. Great for unschooling, unit studies, interest-led, and project-based homeschooling.
